

M'KINLEY'S VOTE

WAS 7,217,677

His Plurality Over Bryan, 859,824;
Majority Over All, 468,055.

FULL PRESIDENTIAL VOTE.

Bryan's Popular Vote Was 6,357,853
—Entire Christian Presidential
Ticket Smallest on List.

New York, Dec. 20.—The Times this morning publishes a table showing the popular vote for presidential electors in the recent election. Minnesota was the last State to declare its vote, this not having been done until yesterday (Wednesday).

In some States, as in Louisiana and South Carolina, there were the nominations of but two parties, Republican and Democratic; upon the ballots in other States there were three and four, and in some eight.

The total vote, including 6,211 scattering, was 13,967,290. Of this McKinley received 7,217,677, and Bryan 6,357,853. Wesley, Prohibitionist, received 207,385; Barker, middle of the road Populist, 50,185; Debs, Social Democrat, 94,582; and Maloney, Social Labor, 33,490.

McKinley's plurality according to the figures of the Times, was 859,824. McKinley's majority was 468,055. In five States for the candidate of the National Union Reform party (Steth H. Ellis, of Ohio, for President, and Samuel T. Nicholson, of Pennsylvania, for Vice President), and in two States for the candidates of the United Christian party (J. F. R. Land, of Iowa, for President, and John G. Woolley, of Illinois, for Vice President), these votes being as follows: National Union Reform, Arkansas, 341; Illinois, 672; Indiana, 234; Maryland, 147; and Ohio, 4,284. United Christian: Illinois, 352; Iowa, 168.

Money for Raisin Growers.

Fresno, Cal., Dec. 20.—Local bankers have arranged to advance to the Raisin Growers' association $500,000 as required to fulfill its contracts. Sales have been slow of late owing to the sluggishness of the Eastern markets. The packers have taken 1,700 carloads of raisins and paid for them. About 500 carloads more have been packed, but there is a dispute about the grades.

Negroes for Hawaii.

Chicago, Dec. 20.—A special to the Record from Nashville, Tennessee, says: About 200 negroes will leave Nashville in the morning for San Francisco, whence they will sail for Honolulu. The negroes are going to work on sugar plantations.

Suing a Steamship Company.

San Francisco, Dec. 20.—John J. English and 120 others have filed a suit in the United States district court against the Pacific Mail Steamship Co. to secure $20,000 damages for alleged breach of passenger contract. The complainants are men who went to Nagasaki some months ago in charge of a cargo of horses designed for the German army in China, and they allege that although their contract with the defendant provided for European steamer accommodations, they were herded in the Oriental steerage among Chinese and Japanese.

A Pro-Spanish Official.

New York, Dec. 20.—A dispatch to the World from Havana, says: Prof. Frye, the superintendent of public schools in Cuba, has just signed, over his official signature, and through the Spanish newspaper "Diario De La Marina," a sensational "proclamation" to the Cuban people. He speaks in derogatory terms of the government and of intervention in general by the Anglo-Saxon race. He urges that all words offensive to Spain be blotted out of the Cuban hymn. He says, "and that others be substituted which would be calculated to inspire the natives to prepare to drive out and resist all foreign foes to the island or to its absolute independence."

Montenegro's Friendship.

Cetinje, Montenegro, Dec. 20.—Voyevoda Bojo Petrovitch Niekoch, president of the Montenegrin council of ministers and minister of the interior, in the presence of the members of the council of state, the cabinet and diplomatic corps formally requested Prince Nicholas as a sign of the gratitude of the people of Montenegro for his beneficent reign, to accept the title "Royal Highness." Prince Nicholas accepted, expressing his thanks and referred to the presence of the diplomats as a sign of the friendship of the European states for Montenegro.

More Men to Manila.

Washington, Dec. 20.—The Buffalo, which is now at Hampton Roads, has been ordered to make ready to carry another draft of men for the fleet at Manila. She will take about 450 landers and apprentices to Trinidad, where she will fall in with the training ship Hartford and Monongahela. She will exchange her green men for an equal number of the trained sailors on the Hartford and Monongahela, and will proceed to Manila, going by way of the Cape of Good Hope and the Indian ocean.

Thinks Turkey Will Settle.

New York, Dec. 20.—Oscar C. Straus, in an interview in the Mail and Express, said that President McKinley was directly due to Turkey's failure to pay the missionary claims, is not true," said Mr. Straus. "For some time the President has desired very much that I should return to Constantinople. It was after I had told him I should not resign that he selected Mr. Leishman as my successor. "All the unsettled matters pending at the time of my appointment have been brought to a satisfactory issue, and I believe that the Armenian missionary question will be amicably settled, and amicable relations between Turkey and the United States continue firmly established."

Mrs. Stembel Dead.

New York, Dec. 20.—Mrs. Laura McB. Stembel, widow of the late Admiral Roger N. Stembel, is dead at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. S. Schmidt of this city.

The admiral died two weeks ago at the Fifth Avenue hotel. Two weeks before her husband's death, Mrs. Stembel was out shopping, and in attempting to cross the street, she stepped backward to avoid a passing cab, lost her footing and in falling broke her thigh. The nervous shock, followed by her grief at the admiral's death, together with a heavy cold, developed the ail-

Uncle Ben Gets His Money.

New York, Dec. 20.—A dispatch to the Herald from Caracas, Venezuela, says: Former President Benjamin Harrison has received his fee for his services in the arbitration of the boundary dispute between British Guiana and this republic. The settlement has just been made public.

In addition the government has paid the American minister the cost of the interest on the foreign debt. This settlement is expected to relieve the government of many of its embarrassments, especially of pressure from Germany, which has caused no little anxiety.

Object to Princess' Marriage.

Madrid, Dec. 20.—During the discussion in the senate of the royal message announcing the marriage in the near future of the princess of Asturias, heiress presumptive to the throne, with Prince Charles, second son of the count of Caserta, Senor Ortega, a republican, raised a storm of protest recalling the conspiracy of a Bourbon princess against other Bourbon royals, which he feared this marriage would have a tendency to renew. Amid insults from all parts of the house the speaker was finally called to order.

VARDEN OFF TO ENGLAND.

The Champion Golfer is Well Pleased With This Country.

Says He Considers Atlantic City One of the Best Courses—May Return Next Spring.

New York, Dec. 20.—Harry Varden sailed for England on the Majestic. "I like the country, the golfers, and the links," said Varden just before he sailed. "I have traveled all over the east, the south and as far west as Denver, and I can safely say that I have been surprised at the widespread popularity of the game. Atlantic City I consider one of the best courses in the country, and it would make an admirable site for the next amateur championship. Newport and Apawamis come close to Atlantic City in excellence. The best amateurs here have a good mastery of the game, but I am frank to say that they are not yet up to the class of the leading amateurs in England and Scotland."

C. S. Cox, who has acted as Varden's caddy, has substituted for him a definite plan has been made regarding Varden's return. If Varden does come back, it will probably be in the spring.

Sloan in San Francisco.

San Francisco, Dec. 20.—Tod Sloan and Tommy Burns, the jockeys, have arrived here. Sloan says he has come purely for pleasure, and will not accept any mounts. Burns will ride here after the first of the year. He has been engaged by William C. Whitney for next season, and expects to ride in England.

MULTNOMAH VS. STANFORD.

It Has Been Definitely Decided on a Game for Christmas.

Stanford University, Cal., Dec. 19.—It has been definitely decided that a team from Stanford will go north during the holidays and play the Multnomah Athletic club at Portland on Christmas day. The team will leave here Saturday afternoon for Portland, returning directly after the game. The Stanford team will be made up as follows: Center, Gregory; left guard, Thompson; right guard, Barnhill; left tackle, Haverman; right tackle, Wooley; left end, Wardall; right end, Parker; right half, Naramore, fullback, Boren.

JEFF AND GUS AGREE.

Heavyweights Sign Articles for a 20 Round Bout on February 15th.

New York, Dec. 19.—James J. Jeffries and Gus Rubin today signed articles of agreement to box twenty rounds, Marquis of Queensbury rules, at Saengerfest Hall, Cincinnati, on February 15. The men agreed to weigh gloves not exceeding five ounces in weight and to accept George Siler as referee. The management of the hall agrees to pay the men 55 per cent of the gross receipts. This is to be divided, 75 per cent to the winner and 25 per cent to the loser. The contestants are also to receive 50 per cent of all the revenues derived from the pictures taken of the bout. Jeffries and Rubin agree to post $2,500 as evidence of their good faith and the management of the hall agrees to post the same amount to guarantee that the contest shall not be interfered with by the mayor of Cincinnati or the governor of the State of Ohio or any one else. All other stipulations and agreements are to be governed by the agreement already existing between Jeffries and Rubin.

MONEY IN ATHLETICS.

Yale Field Corporation Takes In $68,616 for the Year 1900.

New Haven, Conn., Dec. 19.—The report of Mr. Walter Camp, as treasurer of the Yale field corporation, under which head are consolidated the finances of the four main branches of athletics, is made public today. The handsome total of receipts for the year was $68,616. The expenses for all branches of athletics were $3,556. This leaves a profit of $4,960.

Fighting Permits Revoked.

Chicago, Dec. 19.—Mayor Harrison today revoked all permits for prizefighting issued prior to the passage of the anti-fight ordinance by the city council Monday night. The mayor's action puts an end to the stories that he would not approve the new law.

Now the Game is Off.

University of California, Dec. 19.—Manager Hutchinson of the football team says that the University of California will play no Christmas football game. The University of Iowa eleven was willing to meet California on Christmas day in San Francisco and New Year's day in Los Angeles, but the Berkeley men decided that it was too late to make proper arrangements.

LOCAL EVENTS.

CHRISTMAS GAME.

Diamond Buckers and Second Y. M. C. A. Teams Will Play.

Arrangements have been made between the managements of the second Y. M. C. A. and Diamond Buckers football teams for a game to take place next Tuesday afternoon. The Buckers issued the den and the Christians are willing to meet them. Both teams are pretty strong and the contest ought to be a lively one.

Indoor Baseball.

"Indoor Baseball" is the title of the December number of Spalding's Athletic Library. Since the introduction of this popular form of the great national game a few years ago, it has made very rapid progress as a winter amusement, and clubs are now to be found in all the large cities. It is especially popular with national guardsmen, the armories forming an excellent space for the game. This issue of the library contains a full account of the game, with the statistics of the leading clubs throughout the United States, playing rules and directions for forming clubs.

High School vs. Provo.

The second team of the High School has been invited to play the Provo team since the calling off of the one scheduled with the Y. M. C. A. It is quite likely that the High School will go to Provo and play the Provo team on Christmas day.

Francis Wants Another.

Now, Jim Francis is anxious to have another go at Young Christy. He stated last evening that his hands were considerably bruised in Tuesday evening's fight, and he will therefore want two weeks in which to prepare himself. Francis says he believes he can defeat Christy in another bout under the same conditions.
